Legal Costs

In 2019, the average cost of an employee lawsuit is $300,000. A single harassment or discrimination lawsuit can cost at minimum $5,000 in legal fees but can go as high as $1 million.

Employee Turnover

Targets of harassment are 6.5 times as likely to change jobs. Replacing an employee costs 16-20% of an employee's annual salary, rising to up to 213% of salary for experienced managerial.

Absences

Those who reported having been harassed or bullied at work are 1.7 times more likely to have had at least two weeks off work than those who had not.

Productivity

The Problem: Trust Gap

Lack of reporting + Late reporting

= Preventable, escalated costly events

- 75% of employees who are harassed do NOT make internal complaints. EEOC

The Solution: Democratize reporting

- Trust vs. Compliance
- Speak up community
- Safety for ALL

We are #NotMe

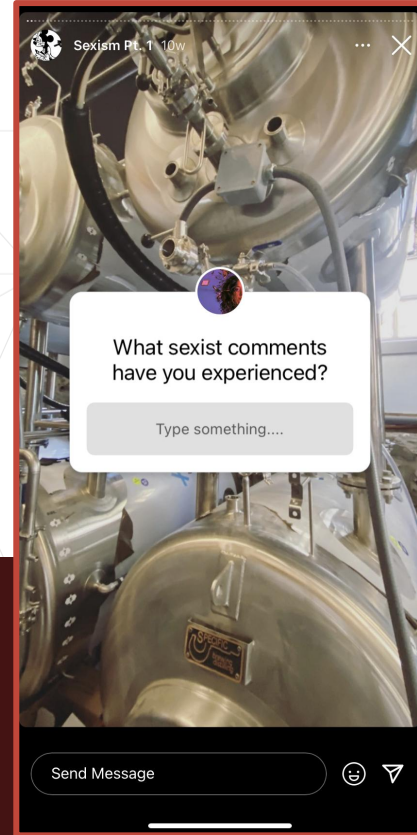

The misconduct reporting platform designed from the ground up to support employees in raising concerns.

Why #NotMe?

Because employees rarely report workplace misconduct internally. They now often share their inappropriate stories on social media.

As a result, employers aren't in a good position to efficiently prevent and deal with misconduct.
